

Membership Benefits and Resources for Students and Foundation Year Doctors

The Royal College of Anaesthetists (RCoA) is the third largest medical Royal College by UK membership. With a combined membership of 22,000 fellows and members, it represents the three specialties of anaesthesia, intensive care and pain medicine.

Raise your professional integrity with tutors, doctors and patients, and demonstrate your dedication to high professional values and care.

Get a head start in your future specialty with career guidance and professional support

- Use the 'Considering a career in anaesthesia' (bit.ly/RCoA-Career) and 'Training and the Training Programme' (bit.ly/RCoA-Training) pages on our website for information on:
 - what a career in anaesthesia can look like
 - the anaesthesia training programme
 - recruitment and selection
 - dual accreditation with ICM
 - pain medicine training.
- Be the first to know about our popular 'Career in anaesthesia' events, held in London and Leeds.
- Use the dedicated section on the College website, sign-posting you to relevant information to help progress your career in anaesthesia.
- Have access to very useful FAQs.

Advance your knowledge and skills

- 75% discount on selected RCoA events and courses.*
- Receive College e-publications including links to the membership Bulletin magazine (bit.ly/RCoA-Bulletin), and the President's monthly e-newsletter.

*There will be a limited number of places available at a 75% discount at selected RCoA events.

 Whilst this is open to non-members, priority will be given to members.

- Use the largest medical online learning resource for anaesthetics in the UK, RCoA e-Learning Anaesthesia (e-LA) (bit.ly/RCoA-eLA), an interactive and engaging web-based learning resource (including online lectures to provide you with vetted material to complement your practical learning).
- Use the webcasting platform – free video recordings of lectures, including lecture slides from selected College events (bit.ly/RCoA-Webcasts).
- Gain a better understanding of perioperative medicine (POM) through the College's dedicated microsite, our printed POM booklet and POM Bulletin articles (bit.ly/RCoA-POM).
- Access a wide range of resources, including the College's Audit Recipe Book (bit.ly/RCoA-ARB2012).

Find new opportunities and make connections

- Apply for RCoA sponsorship opportunities for medical fairs and events. We currently offer College promotional materials, speakers, advertisement on the RCoA website and financial sponsorship.
- Have the opportunity to network with other practitioners and students, sharing best practice, experiences and being part of an anaesthetic and perioperative community.
